

6 Describing a garden

This is a picture of a garden from above. With a partner, describe what you can see and what you can do in the garden. Use 'there is' and 'there are' for the things in the garden.

Now, describe your own garden to your partner. If you don't have a garden, think about one that you like, or want to have.
