

HHH

- If you are ill or have an accident, you would go to a _____
- How many years are there in a Century? hundred
- A typhoon that originates in the Atlantic is called a _____?
- The opposite of heaven is hell hurricane

III

- Water at zero degrees centigrade starts to form ice
- If something is against the law, it is illegal
- A little word which means the opposite of out is _____
- The colored liquid inside of a pen is called ink
- A small moving thing which has six legs and either crawls, jumps, walks or flies is called an _____ insect
- Something used in a band that makes sound is called an instrument
- A word which means 'between countries' and is often used in an Airport name. international
- Someone or something that comes from Ireland is Irish
- A piece of land which is completely surrounded by water is an _____
- The opposite of outside is _____ ISLAND
inside

JJJJ

- What is a short, long sleeved coat called? jacket
- A green stone found in China and Korea and is often carved is called _____ jade
- Fruit boiled with sugar and spread on toast is called _____ jam
- A puzzle made up of different shaped pieces which are fitted together again is called a _____ jigsaw puzzle
- Another word for work or employment is _____ job
- A person who decides in a competition, contest, or in a law case is called a _____ judge
- A story which is funny is called a _____ joke
- The largest planet in the solar system is called _____ Jupiter
- To travel to a distant place is to go on a _____ journey
- The sound made by keys, coins and especially small bells is called a _____ jingle

KKKK

- What in Australia jumps along on its two hind legs and carries its baby in a pouch? kangaroo
- A metal container with a handle, lid and spout which is used for boiling water is called a _____ kettle
- A specially shaped piece of metal used to open locks is called a _____ key
- What prefix means one thousand? kilo, 2K
- This "K word" means to touch with the lips. kiss
- What room in the house is all the cooking and washing of dishes done in? kitchen
- What "K word" is the joint which is half way down the leg? knee
- Which piece of silverware has a handle and a blade and is used for cutting? knife
- What "K word" is a baby goat, but is also slang for 'a child'? kid
- To bang on someone's door with your knuckles is to _____ knock

LLLL

- The meal we eat in the middle of the day is called lunch
- A special room or building where books are kept is called a library
- Treated animal skin that is often made into shoes, sneakers, and jackets is called _____ leather
- When you can't find someplace you are lost
- In autumn the parts of a tree which turns into reds, golds, and browns are the _____ leaves
- If you borrow money from the bank it's called a _____ loan
- Another name for an elevator is a _____ lift
- The opposite of dead is _____ living
- What fruit is yellow, oval shaped and sour? lemon
- To drive legally you need to get a _____ license

MMMM

- A word that means crazy or angry is _____ mad medium
- S. M. and L. are all sizes of clothes. What does the "M" stand for?
- Gold, steel and nickel are all different kinds of _____ metals
- The hair above the upper lip is called a _____ mustache motel
- What special name is given to hotels built for motorists to use?
- Someone who plays music is called a _____ musician
- Something that is slightly wet is said to be _____ moist
- When ice turns to water it _____ melts
- A looking glass where you can see your own reflection is more commonly called a _____ mirror
- If you go to the doctor, he will give you pills and potions which are a type of _____ medicine/medication

NNNN

- The opposite of broad is _____ narrow
- The part of the body which joins the head to the torso is called the _____ neck
- An acupuncturist and a seamstress both use this thin piece of metal to work with. _____ needle
- Twelve o'clock or mid-day is also known as _____ noon
- Almond, cashews and Brazil are all types of _____ nuts
- A person who lives next door to you is your _____ neighbour
- A photographic print is made from a _____ negative
- The "N" on a gear shift stands for _____ neutral
- A quick, short sleep is called a _____ nap
- Women's stockings and tights and many other things are made from _____ nylon

OOOO

- The shellfish from which we get pearls is called an _____ oyster
- A thick liquid that come from the ground called 'Black Gold' is more commonly know as _____ oil
- The adjective which means of the mouth is _____ oral odd
- The numbers 1,3,5,7,and 9 aren't even. They are _____
- Which sea-living animal has eight legs and squirts ink when it is frightened? octopus onion
- What vegetable often makes your eyes water or cry when you cut it?