

Student A
A. Complete the guidelines on etiquette around the world using the words in the box.

pointing	giving	pouring	being	chewing	hugging
eating	putting	keeping	touching	filling	burping

1. Giving ..... someone an even number of flowers is considered impolite in...
  - a. Russia
  - b. Australia
  - c. Colombia
2. Eating ..... with your left hand is very rude in...
  - a. Japan
  - b. India
  - c. Italy
3. Keeping ..... your shoes on when entering someone's house is bad manners in...
  - a. North America
  - b. Asia
  - c. Antarctica
4. chewing ..... gum is considered vulgar in...
  - a. Switzerland
  - b. Canada
  - c. the USA
5. Touching ..... someone on the head is extremely impolite in...
  - a. Thailand
  - b. France
  - c. the UK
6. Burping ..... after eating is considered to be a compliment to the chef in...
  - a. Denmark
  - b. China
  - c. Mexico
7. filling ..... your own glass at the dinner table is extremely bad manners in...
  - a. Norway
  - b. Japan
  - c. Russia
8. Hugging ..... a close relative instead of kissing them is offensive in...
  - a. France
  - b. Germany
  - c. Canada
9. Being ..... late for an appointment or social engagement is polite in...
  - a. India
  - b. Saudi Arabia
  - c. Venezuela
10. putting ..... salt on your food will offend your host in...
  - a. Thailand
  - b. Egypt
  - c. Brazil
11. pouring ..... milk into your cup before your host pours the tea is bad manners in...
  - a. the UK
  - b. Argentina
  - c. China
12. pointing ..... the palms of your hands at someone is extremely offensive in...
  - a. Egypt
  - b. Greece
  - c. Sweden

B. Now, read each guideline and three answers to your partner who has to try to guess the correct country. For each correct answer, they score one point.

Student B

A. Complete the guidelines on etiquette around the world using the words in the box.

shaking	bringing	talking	slurping	offering	making
putting	eating	pointing	ordering	finishing	leaving

1. Not ..... a bottle of wine to a dinner party is very bad etiquette in...

- a. Poland                                  b. France                                  c. Australia

2. .... your noodles is considered to be polite in...

- a. the USA                                  b. Peru                                  c. Japan

3. .... with your hands is very bad manners in...

- a. Pakistan                                  b. Chile                                  c. Egypt

4. .... to split the bill is considered to be very unsophisticated in...

- a. Ireland                                  b. the UK                                  c. France

5. .... a tip for someone is extremely insulting in...

- a. Korea                                  b. Russia                                  c. South Africa

6. .... a cappuccino after 11 a.m. is not the right thing to do in...

- a. Canada                                  b. Italy                                  c. Uruguay

7. .... all the food on your plate will offend your host in...

- a. China                                  b. Portugal                                  c. Brazil

8. .... the okay sign with your thumb is seen as offensive in...

- a. Mexico                                  b. the Philippines                                  c. Turkey

9. .... your feet at another person is very rude in...

- a. South America                                  b. the Middle East                                  c. Europe

10. .... condiments on your pizza is considered bad manners in...

- a. Mexico                                  b. Italy                                  c. Turkey

11. .... about the royal family is extremely rude in...

- a. Thailand                                  b. China                                  c. the USA

12. .... hands with someone before entering a room is very impolite in...

- a. Switzerland                                  b. Cambodia                                  c. Russia

B. Now, read each guideline and three answers to your partner who has to try to guess the correct country. For each correct answer, they score one point.