C. (Complete the sentences b	elow with the bank ac	count terms provided	l.
	bank statement mobile banking	joint account minimum balance	reward points chequing account	NSF charge fee waiver unlimited transactions		1 0	direct deposit
	overdraft protection		_	banking app
1.	Miriam has her own bank	account. She is the
2.	Ann and her husband share the same bank account. They have a
3.	It is fine to have $0.00 in your bank account. You do not need a
4.	Jay wants to save money to go to college. He opened abecause the interest rate was good.
5.	Jose has a for his day-to-day banking He can deposit money, withdraw money and write cheques. The interest rate is very low.
6.	•	•	•	•
•	Hani can withdraw, deposit or transfer money, pay bills, etc. as many times as he wants each month. His bank plan gives him
7.	Lily withdrew and deposited money 11 times last month. She went over her
, •	by one. She has to pay $1.
8.	Many banks do not charge fees for transactions if you keep a minimum balance. They offer a
	, .		7 1	,
9.	Lucy's employer does not give her a paper paycheque. Instead, her pay goes into her bank account. She uses because it is convenient and free
10.	It is important to check your every month. It shows your account balance and a list of all your transactions and fees.
11.	Oleg can do banking with	his smartphone anywh	ere and anytime. He lik	ces because it is so convenient.
12.	You need a special tool or application to do banking on your smartphone. This is called a
13.	Tashi gets a point every ti	Tashi gets a point every time she spends $40 with her debit card. She gets which she can use to travel or buy groceries. It is important to know how much money is in your bank account before you write a cheque. It's a
14.	It is important to know h	ow much money is in yo	our bank account before	e you write a cheque. It's a
14.	It is important to know h good idea to check your _	ow much money is in yo	our bank account before	e you write a cheque. It's a
14. 15.	good idea to check your _	ow much money is in yo	our bank account before	e you write a cheque. It's a good idea to check your _ Asha wrote a rent cheque	ow much money is in yo	our bank account before nly $750 in her accoun	e you write a cheque. It's a first. t. There was an good idea to check your _ Asha wrote a rent cheque	for $800, but she had o	nly $750 in her account before nly $750 in her account the funds) charge of $40	e you write a cheque. It's a first. t. There was an

■ Banking and Credit 43

means the bank gives her a temporary loan when she writes a cheque or withdraws money.